

Greening Australia NT

Wetland water recycling on show

Members of the public will have the chance to learn more about wetland filter and water recovery and recycling, thanks to Greening Australia NT's proposed demonstration facility.

The facility, at Greening Australia's site on Thorak Road, will showcase native Top End flora and the use solar power to reticulate recovered water.

Greening Australia NT is seeking funding to enable the purchase of a solar powered pump.