

Girraween Primary School

Sharing and showcasing knowledge

Last year Girraween Primary School hosted a Sustainable School in Action Field Day, providing an opportunity to share and showcase everyday sustainable living practice.

School groups and community members visited through the day and students shared information about initiatives ranging from the school's bucket recycling program to the butterfly farm and identifying and eradicating weeds.

Sustainability is recognised as part of the school culture and students are proud to share their knowledge.

